

HUGH DAVIS.

[To accompany bill H. R. No. 131.]

MARCH 5, 1840.

Mr. TALIAFERRO, from the Committee on Revolutionary Pensions, submitted the following

REPORT:

The Committee on Revolutionary Pensions, to whom was referred the petition of Hugh Davis, report:

That the petitioner was, as appears by the army rolls, a sergeant in the continental line of the army in the war of the revolution: that he was erroneously pensioned as a private under the act of March, 1818: that he was, in order to correct this mistake, pensioned, under the act of 1832, as a sergeant. He now asks that the difference between the pay of a sergeant and a private may be allowed to him from the time he was pensioned under the act of 1818, and the time he was pensioned as a sergeant under the act of 1832. The committee, seeing that the evidence on which he claims as a sergeant was on file in the War Department at the time he was erroneously pensioned as a private, recommend the allowance the petitioner now claims, and report a bill.

Blair & Rives, printers.

HUGH DAVIS.

[To accompany bill H. R. No. 121.]

March 5, 1840.

Mr. TALLAMER, from the Committee on Revolutionary Pensions, submitted the following

REPORT:

The Committee on Revolutionary Pensions, to whom was referred the petition of Hugh Davis, report:

That the petitioner was, as appears by the army rolls, a sergeant in the continental line of the army in the war of the revolution: that he was erroneously pensioned as a private under the act of March, 1818: that he was, in order to correct this mistake, pensioned, under the act of 1832, as a sergeant. He now asks that the difference between the pay of a sergeant and a private may be allowed to him from the time he was pensioned under the act of 1818, and the time he was pensioned as a sergeant under the act of 1832. The committee, seeing that the evidence on which he claims as a sergeant was on file in the War Department at the time he was erroneously pensioned as a private, recommend the allowance the petitioner now claims, and report a bill.

Blair & Rives, printers.